Honomuni

Here we are riding in a car
Hills are simple to climb on a jeep ride
There in the beauty of Honomuni
The home that welcomes guests

You are renowned oh Moloka'i
Warm is the affection for visitors
The beauty of Kalaupapa is seen
Garlanded in kukui trees

Great Moloka'i child of Hina
With the friendly multitudes of the land
Stirred up are dim memories
The prayerful voice of chief Pi'ilani

This mele by John Pi'ilani Watkins is also known as Moloka'i. Nā Hono O Pi'ilani included the islands of Maui, Moloka'i, Lāna'i and Kaho'olawe, over which the Maui chief held sway. Pi'ilani was one of Maui's greatest chiefs and during his reign there was peace.
