Sweet Someone

7

Gm Slide

C7 Sweet someone Gm C7 Aug

Whoever you may be

f Slide

Sweet someone

You suit me to a "T"

C7 Gm C7

Although you pay no attention

To me at all D7 Slide

One kiss and needless to mention

C7 Pause

I had to fall

Gm Slide

How I wonder

C7 Gm C7

Who's keeping us apart

f Slide

Don't blunder

And give away your heart

C7 Gm C7

And when I whisper "I love you"

And then you'll know D7

Gm Slide

Sweet someone

C7 Gm C7 f → f Dim C7 Aug

That you belong to me

ending F F# F

This song by Gordon Waggner and Baron Keyes, while not a big hit on the mainland, captured the affection of the Hawaiian audience, and was on the best selling list in Hawai'i for many months. 1927.
